

Rotaract Club of Rajarshi Shahu Arts And Commerce College, Rukadi

Introduction:

Rotary International is an international N.G.O. with the aim of 'Service Above Self '.

It functions worldwide for the needy. However, Rotary feels the need to develop the same urge and habit among the youth. For that, it installs Rotaract Clubs in Colleges. Rotaract Club of Rajarshi Shahu Arts And Commerce Club was installed in 2008 on the same line of thinking and now it is working in unison with the college for various programmes. This club strives to develop leadership qualities as well as various life skills among the students.

Aims and Objective:

1. To develop leadership among students.
2. To create social awareness among the students.
3. To create the feeling of 'Service above Self '.
4. To develop various life-skills such as 'working as a part of a team', compering, organisation of programmes.
5. To provide for necessities of the society, college and the students.

Activities:

1. Installation Ceremony of Rotaract Club
2. Conducting various lectures, seminars and workshops
3. Organisation of blood donation camp, health check-up camp
4. Co-organise elocution and debating competitions, essay competitions, rangoli and mehendi competition on various days
5. Street plays for awareness
6. Celebration of Traditional Attire day and traditional attire competition
7. Students' adoption
8. Cycle distribution