About the College

Rajarshi Shahu Arts and Commerce College, Rukadi was established in 1992 to provide higher education to the student, especially girls, in Rukadi and villages around it. It has turned up like a blessing to the those students who wish to take higher education but cannot afford to persue it in the cities like Kolhapur and lchalkaranji on account of financial and social constraints. For last three decades, the college has been endeavouring to bring about positive change in the catchment area by organizing various student-teacher-community oriented activities.
