

Code of Ethics in Research

1. Research must be authentic and original
2. Research should be pursued as per the standard of discipline
3. The accuracy of research data should be insured
4. Misleading statements or declarations vague assumptions should be avoided as they are symbol of misinterpretation.
5. Sources of information and data should be clearly cited.
6. Proper acknowledgement and credit should be offered to resources / funding sources of the research
7. Details and complete records of the undertaken research should be kept intact
8. Transparency in the use and disbursement of resource should be maintained
9. It should be ensured that the results of the research are accessible to the public after the completion of research.
10. Experts' opinion regarding research should be taken.
11. Plagiarism standards will be as per the university norms.